AT WAS THE FIRST LOWERED

Statement Created a Sensation in ew of the Fact that 20 Per cent Crew Was Saved While Only 8 r Cent of Passengers Survived.

ovidence, R. I., Feb. 15.—A element was injected into the r attending the loss of the mer Larchmont in Block Island d Monday night through a colli- with the schooner Harry Knowl- when Captain McVey, of the mer, admitted that his life boat one of the first, not the first, ave the sinking ship. This state- t was made in reply to charges Fred Hiergsell, an 18-year-old of Brooklyn, one of the survi- , that the passengers were left shift for themselves; that the ship's w crowded the boats without at- pting to provide for the passengers that Captain McVey was the first desert the ship.

The statement of young Hiergsell ated a sensation in view of the fact t ten of the nineteen survivors e employes of the ship, or in other ds, that while approximately 20 cent of the vessel's crew were d, only 8 per cent of the pas- ers survived.

aptain McVey explained that while boat may have been the first in water, it was because he had a d crew, and that he remained by ship until she went down. He he made no move to get into his until he had given orders to his to lower all the boats and clear y the rafts. While his boat was the water it was fastened to the by a rope in the running gear had been caught and this was cut the boatswain, Tobeson, who saw t with the ship settling rapidly, the t and its occupants would be ught in the whirlpool and sucked neath the surface. The captain's was on the windward side and said he called to the passengers jump into his boat which would ld about 22 people in all, but the ctric lights had been extinguished d in the darkness and confusion one heeded his summons.

Everybody was on the leeward side the ship and he ordered his men to w around there, he claims, but the le balked his plan, and the boat as driven away from the steamer. men had to give up their task d crouch down in the bottom of the at out of the way of the piercing ind.

At 8 o'clock Thursday morning the umber of known lost in the fright- l calamity stood at 138. At least 57 persons were known to be on the teamer and there is every indication hat the number was nearer 200.

Seventy-one bodies had been re- overed up to 8 o'clock Thursday and orty-nine of these now lie in the morgue in this city awaiting identifi- ation.

Pulajanes Murder Constables.

Manila, Feb. 15.—Pulajanes at- acked and burned two towns in the province of Occidental Negros Wednesday, and killed six members of the constabulary. Two American teachers, W. J. Bassetter and Walter J. Lisle, are reported to be missing. No cause is known for the sudden uprising. Raids were made within a radius of 10 miles and schools were first attacked and burned in both instances. The province of Occidental Negros has been free from disturbances for four years. It is believed the raiders were mountaineers venting their hereditary enmity against the coast towns.

Wife of Taw Juror Still Continues Critically Ill.

New York, Feb. 15.—Mrs. Bolton, wife of Juror Bolton, is dead.

New York, Feb. 15.—The trial of Harry K. Thaw, was resumed on Thursday morning, but court had been in session less than 15 minutes when information was received that the wife of Juror No. 11, Joseph B. Bolton, was in a critical condition, and a recess was ordered until 2 p. m. to enable the juryman to visit her bedside.

Mrs. Bolton is suffering from double pneumonia. It had been arranged that the attending physician should have the court officers constantly informed as to her condition, and there was no surprise, consequently, when Captain Ricketts, commanding the court police squad, was seen to whisper to Justice Fitzgerald and the latter interrupted Dr. B. D. Evans, who was in the witness chair to continue his direct examination. After a consultation with district attorney Jerome and Thaw's lawyers the recess until 2 o'clock was ordered.

Much sympathy is expressed for the juror. Mrs. Bolton is quite frail, and there is said to be little hope for her recovery.

It seemed as as though the trial is likely to be indefinitely postponed, if Justice Fitzgerald should decide to temporarily excuse Juror Bolton and keep his associates on the panel under lock and key. Unless this is done, a mistrial may be ordered.

Everybody is anxious to avoid the latter alternative, and efforts will be made to carry the case to a conclusion even though Bolton should be away for a week. It is a question, however, whether he would be in a condition to serve at any time in the near future in the event of a fatal termination of his wife's illness.

After the recess was ordered Thursday, Mrs. Harry Thaw, who had expected to take the stand late Friday afternoon, visited her husband in the Tombs.

Thaw received many valentines on Thursday, some of them decided works of art.

Central Train Kills Pastor.

Monticello, Ga., Feb. 15.—A terrible accident occurred at Moss crossing on the Central of Georgia railroad on Wednesday. Rev. J. E. Pounds was instantly killed by the northbound train from Macon. Pounds was carried 50 yards up the road, his head being crushed in half. The horse was killed and fell almost on the crossing. Mr. Pounds was a missionary Baptist minister, beloved by every citizen in the county and the terrible end of so true and good a man is a great calamity here. Rev. Mr. Pounds leaves a widow and four small children.

Woman Killed by Vicious Dog.

Philadelphia, Feb. 15.—Mrs. Lena Smith of this city, who was terribly torn and bitten by a vicious bulldog at her home died at a hospital later. The dog was whipped by Mrs. Smith on Monday and Wednesday when she went into the kitchen with a plate of meat for the dog she was attacked by the animal. Her arm was torn into shreds and was afterwards amputated. Attracted by Mrs. Smith's screams, her husband went to her assistance, and killed the dog with a poker. Mrs. Smith said: "I beat the dog for disobeying me, and it was sullen all day. I felt sorry last night and was giving it a good supper when it attacked me."

1,000 PEOPLE ARE RENDERED HOMELESS

Ninety Cottages and Two Hundred Barns Burn.

TWO LIVES REPORTED AS LOST

Drunken Man Rushes Into a Burning Building and Nothing Has Been Seen of Him Since—Inhabitants Lost Everything.

Poplar Bluff, Ark., Feb. 15.—Notwithstanding the many wild rumors in regard to the loss of life, as a result of the fire which on Wednesday night destroyed ninety cottages and residences, three hotels, the Carr Memorial church and fully two hundred barns and outhouses, entailing a loss of $200,000, so far as can be learned today, only two persons lost their lives.

John W. Springer, a foreman in the Cotton Belt railroad yard, was run down and killed while carrying furniture from a cottage, which afterwards burned.

A man by the name of Reed, who is said to have gone into a burning house in an intoxicated condition, has no been seen since.

Nearly one thousand people, including 150 families, are homeless, and many are without clothing other than that which they wore at the time of the conflagration.

Woman Suffragists Fined.

London, Feb. 1[illegible]—Fifty-six women suffragists who were arrested within the precincts of parliament on Wednesday evening were arraigned in police court Thursday charged with disorderly conduct and resisting the police. Mrs. Deshard, a sister of General French, who has taken a prominent part in the suffragist movement, was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 or undergo twenty-one days' imprisonment. Some of the women who have been imprisoned for persisting in suffragists' rights, have been fined $10 with the options of a month in prison. The rest of the prisoners were condemned to pay fines of $5 each or undergo two weeks in jail. They all elected to go to prison.

Strike Is Nearing an End.

Augusta, Ga., Feb. 15.—Indications are that the strike of the carworkers of the Georgia railroad and Charleston and Western Carolina railway shops will be brought to an end within the next ten days. The roads are unable to employ sufficient labor to carry on the work, and other union employees of the shops refuse to handle material that has been worked on by "scab" men. There are at least six engines lying idle because of the lack of workmen. The strikers are being assisted by the principal merchants, who readily contribute to the strike fund.

Milliners' Union's First Meeting.

Chicago, Feb. 15.—The Milliners' Union had its first meeting Wednesday and signalized its entrance into the labor field by attempting to fix a wage scale for "art." The following weekly wage scale was fixed: Milliner apprentices (art studen(s) $3. Preparers (with a sense of the artistic) $8. Trimmers (artists) $12. Milliners (full fledged) $15. The milliners will apply for membership in the Chicago Federation of Labor.

To Force Mothers to Nurse Babes.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 15.—Representative Timberlake, of Minneapolis, introduced in the house Wednesday a bill, which, if enacted, will prohibit any person from inducing a mother to cease nursing her baby within a month of the infant's birth. The bill, which was introduced at the request of a charitable society, was referred to the committee on health and pure food.

Winner of Lottery Prize.

Milan, Feb. 15.—W. Gustav Leeman, employed in the hydrographic works of Fribourg, 26 years old, and unmarried, is the winner of a million lire lottery prize at the Milan exposition. M. Leeman is a native of Switzerland. He will give up his employment and leave Fribourg.

HAPEVILLE MAN MAKES ESCAPE

Alleged Diamond Thief Walks Away From Sleeping Officer.

Tampa, Fla., Feb. 15.—Quite a mysterious escape occurred here. John West, of Hapeville, Ga., was detained in the office of the chief of police, and was under the charge of a guard and a plain-clothes man. The latter went out for a few minutes, while, the guard says, he went to sleep. West very promptly took advantage of these circumstances, and walked out, and his whereabouts are now unknown.

West was arrested, charged with knowing something of the murder of S. Morton, a stranger, whose dead body was found in a room of the Southern hotel, in this city, on the night of Jan. 29, 1906.

In addition to the charge of murder against West, the police authorities here believe that he is a diamond thief of extensive practice. His baggage being searched, a quantity of unmounted diamonds was found, and a number of pawn tickets, showing that a great number of diamonds had been pawned all over the country.

There is evidence to the effect that West was in Atlanta about the time of the Ryan diamond robbery.

STRANGE DEATH OF MAN.

Aged White Man Is Found Dying in the Forest.

Commerce, Ga., Feb. 15.—The details of a mysterious death, which ocurred at Walnut Hill, in Franklin county, have just been received here.

Roland Cheek, an aged white man, was in the forest cutting logs for the saw mill. The bell rang for dinner, but Cheek did not respond. Time and again the bell rang, but nothing was seen or heard of Cheek.

A searching party was organized, and sent into the woods. Cheek was found in an unconscious condition, lying in the brush of one of the tree tops.

The party was directed to the tree top by the groans of the wounded and unconscious man. His head was bloody, his arm broken, his shoulder crushed, and his righ leg broken in three places. He lingered several hours, and died. Just how it happened no one knows, or ever will know.

To Fight Dispensaries.

Dawson, Ga., Feb. 15.—It seems now that there is to be a contest of the recent prohibtion election in Terrell county which resulted in a majority of 154 against the dispensaries. Those who are proposing to make the contest have employed counsel, a number of prominent Dawson lawyers being among the number, and also Hon. Joe Hill Hall, of Macon, who has been here consulting with the contestants and making preparations for a vigorous legal contest. Under the statute, twenty days are allowed in which to begin the proceedings, and it is understood that the attorneys representing the advocates of the dispensary are taking the necessary steps to put the case in the court.

Don't Want Name Changed.

New Orleans, Feb. 15.—A special to the Picayune from Columbia, Miss., which was once the capital of the state, and which is about 100 years old, says that the citizens are holding indignation meetings over an order from the postoffice department to change the name of the postoffice there. The reason given is that confusion arises between Columbia and Columbus, also a Mississippi town. The citizens are offered the opportunity to select the new name.

Use of Night Caps Revived.

London, Feb. 15.—Fifty-six wo[illegible]night caps which were discarded a half cen[illegible]except by elderly women, [illegible]evived by fashionable English ladies. According to Drapers Record, headgear of that kind is becoming part of a woman's wardrobe.

RAILROAD EARNINGS GREATLY DECREASE

Net Earnings of Alabmama Roads a Million Less.

COSTS MUCH MORE TO OPERATE

Over Half a Million Increase in Operating Expenses of the Railroads of Alabama—Some Roads Ran Their Trains at a Loss.

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 15.—By reports in the office of the state railroad commission it cost the railroads of Alabama $574,358.21 more to operate in the year ending June 30, 1906, than for the twelve months previous, the net earnings for the last year being $6,555,413.58 as compared to $7,129,771.79. The per cent of operating expenses to gross earnings in 1906 was 80.29, for the year ending June 30, 1905, 76.09.

The total passenger earnings for 1906 was $8,369,377.65, and freight $23,274,771.54. The gross earnings from all sources, including trackage and yard rents, were $32,846,740.47. During that time the operating expenses and taxes were $26,372,295.42, and the net earnings $6,555,413.58. Five lines, the Sumter and Choctaw; Sylacauga and Wetumpka; Canton, Aberdeen and Nashville; Atlanta and Birmingham division of the Seaboard and the Brimingham and Atlantic, ran at a total loss of $80,968.54.

The total earnings of the Alabama roads in the year ending June 30, 1905, was $29,435,907.94; expenses and taxes, $22,435,037.60; net, $7,129,771.79. It will, therefore, be seen that while the gross earnings for 1906 were $3,000,832.53 in excess of the year before, the excess expenses of the one year over the other was $3,737,257.83. While it cost, according to figures presented, 76.09 of the total earnings to operate in 1905, it took 80.29 for the service in 1906.

Burning Trestle; Train Flagged.

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 15.—Madison Jones, a 12-year-old farm boy, discovering that a portion of a six-hundred-foot trestle had been burned near Sparks Gap, on the Southern railway, twenty miles from Birmingham Thursday, left his wagon and taking off his red flannel sweater, flagged an approaching passenger train from Birmingham. The train came to a halt and the passengers upon discovering the situation, made up a purse for the boy. There was a curve not far from the trestle and the boy proceeded to this curve to flag the train, which carried about 100 passengers. The fire is supposed to have originated from sparks dropped by a passing freight train.

Harriman Refused All Offers.

San Francisco, Feb. 15.—The examiner says that President Harriman of the Pacific Mail company, has refused al offers of the officials of the Toyen Kisen Kaisha, the Japanese company, operating steamers between this port and the Orient, to sell out to them his line of steamers in part or in whole. The Pacific Mail company, it is said, is now considering a proposition from Mexico, by which the Pacific Mail is to abandon the Panama route in toto and run its steamers in connection with the Tehuantepec Isthmian line or else divide its steamer services between the two isthmian roads.

Stricken With Apoplexy.

Covington, Ga., Feb. 15.—While in the act of alighting from his carriage to go into the office of a justice of the peace to have the documents in his will properly attested, James J. Harris, a wealthy planter and prominent citizen, residing in Walton county, 8 miles north of this city, was stricken with apoplexy, and died without regaining consciousness.

Italy's Population Decreasing.

Rome, Feb. 15.—Recent statistics having shown that Italy's population for the last five years has been gradually descreasing owing to emigration, the government has decided to adopt restrictive measures. The lack of laborers is felt everywhere.

A PROMINENT OFFICIAL.

Inspector Visits Gainesville for First Time, and is Well Pleased.

Among the prominent visitors to the city is Hon. P R. Wadsworth of Washington, Indiana, an inspector of the land and surveyer-generals' offices of this, the Mississippi Valley districts. Mr. Wadsworth is making his first visit to this city, officially or otherwise, and good-naturedly declares that he is satisfied with everything. "I have heard a great deal about Gainesville," he said, "in my readings of Florida, but I never dreamed that you had such a lovely town here. I like Gainesville from that I have seen, and hope to come here again."

Mr. Wadsworth is particularly fond of Gainesville for two reasons. The first is that he likes the town and its people, and the second, which is as important as the first, that his old friend, Col. J. B. Lloyd, who is a neighbor in Indiana, makes his winter home here and, as Mr. Wadsworth expresses it, "is always saying something" about Gainesville.

Mr. Wadsworth met many Gainesville people Friday. He became better pleased with every introduction.

THE BIBLE CONFERENCE.

Services Friday Were Well Attended. Dr. Gwilym in Evening.

The services at the Tabernacle on Friday were fairly well attended, and those present felt a great deal of good from the talks of the various speakers. The meeting in the morning opened with Dr. Gwilym's lecture, which was a continuation of the "Epistle to the Romans in Relation to Modern Thought." Dr. Gwilym, as usual, held the attention of the audience, which was larger than usual, for half an hour or more, during which he said many things of instruction and interest.

In the afternoon Prof. Brown, the great Bible student, delivered one of his lectures, and in the evening Dr. Gwilym preached on the subject, "A Visit to Samaria." There was a large congregation at this service, and Dr. Gwilym, who is always good, appeared at his best. Everybody felt well repaid for their attendance.

The usual services will be held today, at 11 a. m., 2:45 p. m. and 7:30 p. m., to which the public is invited.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

DELAYS ARE SERIOUS.

Shipments from Birmingham, Ala., Delayed for Several Weeks.

Contractor Beeman of the sewerage work, who has had a large force of men engaged here in an endeavor to finish his contract with the city as quickly as possible, but who has been compelled to lay these men off from time to time at great inconvenience and expense and delay, is naturally becoming quite provoked at the manner in which he is being put out by the failure of freights to arrive.

"When I accepted this contract to install a sewerage system in Gainesville," he said, "I accepted it on a very close bid, with strong competition. I expected naturally that the material would be delivered to destination in a reasonable length of time, hence put on a good force. I have been compelled to keep many of these men, as good labor is a scarce proposition. Of course it has been necessary for me to support these men while they are waiting on material, and the consequences are as expensive as they are annoying."

Mr. Beeman states that a carload of pipe which left Birmingham, Ala., in December, 1906, has not yet reached its destination, and that its whereabouts cannot be determined.

A carload of piping was received on Tuesday from Macon, but this lasted only a couple of days, with the result that the men are loafing around for the want of material with which to work.

Dandy Dixie Minstrels.

While minstrelsy is quite the oldest form of theatrical entertainment, its purveyors have come to be recognized as the most up-to-date and advanced in method. Each year's offering seems to have reached the pinnacle of perfection, and still by the time a new season rolls around these wide-awake managers always have something better, bigger and more novel to offer.

This season the "Dandy Dixie Minstrels" promise to reveal a minstrel entertainment with more comedians, singers, musicians and specialties than have ever been seen before in one aggregation. The company needs no further demonstrations as to its cast of fun-makers, while the olio with the famous Cotton Pickers' Band offers a host of novelties which are already famed for their European and New York success. They will all be seen at the opera house in this city on Tuesday night, February 19.

MRS. LOVE'S BENEFIT.

Willis Colson Says People of West End Are Coming to Her Assistance.

"The friends of Mrs. Lorinne Love are certainly showing their loyalty to her in her recent misfortune," said County Tax Assessor W. W. Colson Friday to a Sun reporter, whom he met just as he stepped from the train from the West End. "They have subscribed liberally to her comfort, and my sister nor myself, nor any of us, will ever forget it."

This was certainly gratifying information to friends of Mrs. Love, who had the misfortune to lose her home in Trenton by fire on Tuesday night. Mrs. Love is a sister of Willis W., Perry M. and B. R. Colson of this city, and has many friends and acquaintances here. Immediately after the information of her misfortune reached here a popular subscription was started for her relief, and more than $100 was subscribed and paid in in a short time. Mr. Colson, who has just returned from the West End, states that the subscriptions in that section have been liberal, so it is safe to say that Mrs. Love will not suffer.

Mr. Colson states that work will begin the first of the week on a new home for Mrs. Love, and she will again be comfortably domiciled in a short time.

THE ORPHAN BOYS' BAND.

Georgia Boys Produced Fine Music, Which Was Appreciated.

The Boys' Band of the Georgia Industrial Home of Macon, Ga., gave a concert at the opera house last night, which was none too well attended, but despite the discouragement in the matter of attendance the young men and lads composing the band did excellent work, which was appreciated by those present.

This aggregation is a part and parcel of the Georgia Industrial Home, which was established several years ago by Dr. W. E. Mumford for the care and protection of orphan boys of every creed. The Home has no endowment and through the efforts of Dr. Mumford, who devoted his whole life to the enterprise after he become connected with it, the home was sustained and this boys' band was organized.

The concert was good, and considering the fact it was given in support of the Home, should have been more widely patronized.

A PROMINENT VISITOR.

Secretary of Ministerial Education and Relief Will Be Here Sunday.

Rev. Henry H. Sweets of Louisville, Ky., Secretary of Ministerial Education and Relief of the Presbyterian Church, is expected to be in Gainesville on Sunday. He will preach at the First Presbyterian Church at the morning service.

Mr. Sweets comes at the invitation of Dr. Andrew Sledd, to visit the students of the University. He will hold a conference with the members of the Young Men's Christian Association and the other students at the University chapel at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Sweets is quite a young man, with gifts and uncommon attractiveness of person, and he comes on a mission to young men. The young men of the city and of the churches are cordially invited to attend this 4 o'clock meeting at the University.

For Marshal.

I respectfully announce my candidacy for the office of City Marshal at the election on April 9th, 1907. If elected I shall perform the duties of the office without fear or favor.

NEW ICE FACTORY PUSHING RAPIDLY

Machinery is Being Received, and Workmen Pushing Building.

CAPACITY OF TWENTY TONS

The New Factory, Which Will Be in Operation by July 1, Will Place Gainesville Fourth City in Florida in the Production of Ice.

The machinery for the new plant of the Fruit Growers' Express Company, which will be an ice manufacturing plant of the most modern type, is arriving, and by the beginning of the summer season this plant will add another industry to Gainesville's manufacturing enterprises.

For several weeks a large force of hands has been engaged in erecting a suitable building for this new enterprise. This building, amply commodious for the purposes for which it is intended, and which will be equipped with every modern appliance for icing refrigerator cars, etc., will be located near the junction on West Main street, S., and will be accessible to all roads entering the city. The very latest models in elevated platforms, etc., will be provided, and all products will be handled by machinery in an automatic manner.

Three carloads of machinery have already arrived, and others are expected daily. As soon as the building is sufficiently completed to warrant a force of machinists will be set to work installing the same, and it is calculated that not later than July 1 everything will be in working order, and the plant will be producing twenty tons of ice per day.

This new factory will give Gainesville prominence as being the fourth largest ice producing city in Florida, the combined three plants being about sixty tons per day. This record can only be surpassed by Jacksonville, Tampa and Pensacola, cities of much greater population.

Being in the heart of the greatest and most fertile vegetable and melon growing district of Florida, Gainesville will have use for all the ice that these combined factories can turn out for refrigeration purposes.

Men Past Sixty in Danger.

More than half mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate gland. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rock Port, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now 91 years old." "The Woman In White."

In a letter to Charles Dickens, Wilkie Collins intimated the fact that the great work upon which he had devoted so much time was finished, but that the finding of a suitable title had occasioned him much trouble. Eventually, feeling somewhat run down in health, he left London for Broadstairs, a resort which was a favorite with both Dickens and Collins. While lying on the cliff in a meditative mood one bright morning his eyes suddenly riveted themselves on the white light house which stood boldly out in the foreground under the dazzling rays of the midday sun. As he gazed Collins in a semiconscious manner addressed himself in a whisper to the light house. "You are as stiff and as stately as my white woman," said he. "White woman! White wo—the woman in white. Eureka! I have got it!" And so the book was given this curiously inspired title.

NO FAITH IN PHYSIC.

Queen Elizabeth Refused Medicine In Her Last Illness.

Of the efficacy of physic Queen Elizabeth had always been skeptical. Now, ten or twelve physicians came to the palace, each promising, "with all manner of asseveration," "her perfect and easy recovery" if she would follow a simple course of treatment. But they spoke in vain. Nor could the protests of councilors, divines and waiting women induce her to accept medical assistance. Her melancholy was "settled and irremovable," and she had no wish to prolong it by lengthening out her life. She only broke silence to murmur, "I am not sick, I feel no pain, and yet I pine away." She was asked whether she had any secret cause of grief. She replied that she knew of nothing in the world worthy of troubling her. At length by force (it is said) she was lifted from the cushions and put to bed. Her condition underwent no change. Gradually those about her realized that "she might live if she would use means," but that she would not be persuaded, and princes, as they tearfully acknowledged, cannot be coerced. Nevertheless until the third week they looked forward to a renewal of her old vivacity and the dispersal of her lethargy. But during the week it was perceived that the ground she had lost could only be recovered by miracle.

On Wednesday, March 23, her councilors entered her bedchamber to receive her last instructions. She had none to give. The archbishop and bishops offered up prayer at her bedside, and she derived some comfort from their ministrations. In the evening she sank into a quiet sleep, such as she had sought without avail for nearly a month. She never woke again. "About 3 o'clock in the morning of March 24 she departed this life mildly, like a lamb; easily, like a ripe apple from the tree." When she was examined after death her physicians reported that "she had a body of firm and perfect constitution, likely to have lived many years." Death was, in fact, prepared to the last to bargain with her for a few more years of life, but his terms implied an enfeeblement of those faculties on whose unrestricted exercise her queenly fame seemed to her to depend. By refusing to be party to the truce she invited her overthrow, but she never acknowledged herself vanquished. She made no will, she bestowed no gift on any of the faithful attendants who wept beside her deathbed, and she declined to guide her council in the choice of a successor.—Cornhill Magazine.

An Infernal Drink.

A joke was played on Arthur Balfour on the first St. Patrick's day of his tenure of the Irish chief secretaryship. A cigar box, delivered to him at the house of commons, contained a bunch of shamrocks. "From a sincere Irish admirer." But, to the terror of his secretaries, the box was also found to contain a wicked looking steel spring covered with a queer white compound. A chemical expert was called, and he examined the "infernal machine," everybody momentarily expecting an explosion. The puzzled chemist, venturing to put a particle of the compound on his tongue, found that it was simply sugar impregnated with lemon. He then turned the box upside down and out rolled a rusty corkscrew, a spiral spring and an old nutmeg grater. There was also a scrap of paper inscribed: "Buy the whisky yourself. You can then concoct the famous lemonade of Ballyhooley and drink to ould Ireland."—Bohemian.

The governor has announced that he wanted the legislature to get along as fast as possible, but not to hurry. He said he would give them all the time they wanted to do the work, calling as many extra sessions as necessary.

"The Blood is The Life."

Science has never gone beyond the above simple statement of scripture. But it has illuminated that statement and given it a meaning ever broadening with the increasing breadth of knowledge. When the blood is "bad" or impure it is not alone the body which suffers through disease. The brain is also clouded, the mind and judgement are effected, and many an evil deed or impure thought may be directly traced to the impurity of the blood. Foul, impure blood can be made pure by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It enriches and purifies the blood thereby curing, pimples, blotches, eruptions and other cutaneous affections, as eczema, tetter, or salt-rheum, hives and other manifestations of impure blood.

◉ ◉ ◉ ◉ ◉ ◉

In the cure of scrofulous swellings, enlarged glands, open eating ulcers, or old sores, the "Golden Medical Discovery" has performed the most marvelous cures. In cases of old sores, or open eating ulcers, it is well to apply to the open sores Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve, which possesses wonderful healing potency when used as an application to the sores in conjunction with the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" as a blood cleansing constitutional treatment. If your druggist don't happen to have the "All-Healing Salve" in stock, you can easily procure it by inclosing fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post. Most druggists keep it as well as the "Golden Medical Discovery."

◉ ◉ ◉ ◉ ◉ ◉

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, the same being attested as correct under oath.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

WORK MAKES MEN.

Work makes men. Luck usually fails. Pluck nearly always wins. To succeed in anything one must overcome obstacles. Force and fiber are built by hardships. Grit is as necessary in the making of a man as gumption. Hardships are not always handicaps. Often they are helps. You will understand this better in twenty years. Meanwhile permit one who has lived that twenty years and more to advise you in this. Hang onto your job unless you are sure of a better one. Dependable boys are in demand. And no boy can be depended upon who does not finish the task he sets his hand to do. However disagreeable your work, do it thoroughly. Do it better than the average boy will do it.

For the most part, one's criticism of another is in the nature of a self-inflicted indictment. Until a man can stand flat-footed and see over his own back fence, he has no earthly right to say what is in his neighbor's yard.

No candidate should be voted for by the people for alderman at the election next April who will not pledge himself to oppose renewing the contract with the Gainesville Gas and Electric Power Company for lighting (or pretending to light) the streets of the city. It would be better to let the city remain in darkness a few months than to allow this foreign octopus to again fasten its tentacles upon the throats of the people. There are other and more satisfactory ways of lighting the streets than the present method, and the Council should be prepared to meet the situation. Get busy, Mr. Alderman, and do not allow the Electric Light Company to catch you napping.

Lyman Abbott thinks that he sees the dawn of the fraternal age. So they thought in France long ago when they madly followed the slogan of "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity." So they thought in the Dark Ages when the great brotherhoods of the church grew so strongly despite the general darkness and desolation. So they thought in the time of Plato; but it's a long way yet to the real dawn, and battleships and magazine rifles continue to find purchasers; murders and mob massacres proceed in Russia in a manner anything but fraternal, and here in the United States our brethren of the meat packing business were lately detected serving the human family with bad meat in most unkindly fashion.

An irate citizen says that hereafter he wants the editors to mind their own business. My dear Christian friend, did you ever reflect, in your contemplative moments, when the moon is beaming, when the whippoorwill sings in the tree, when the hired man snores in the loft, the yellow dog sleeps on the lea, and the mosquito gets in his work—did you ever reflect in such times upon the idea that a paper containing only accounts of the editor's own private business would be apt to prove monotonous to the general public? They might stand it for a while, but in the end it would be a thorn in the side and a weariness to the flesh, and all that sort of thing. No, brother, the true editor's business is to make everybody's business his business. That's business. So there's no use in making a chronic kicker of yourself for anyone.

NEWBERRY IS PROSPEROUS.

The good people of Newberry and vicinity have always been an industrious set, but upon two or three occasions, principally from the effects of the great storm of eleven years ago, they have suffered adversities which were serious for a time. However, these adversities only had a tendency to hold them back on the road to prosperity, with the result that by united efforts they have again become of more importance.

The Newberry section has been progressing for the past six or seven years as no other section in the county proportionately has progressed, because natural conditions have smiled upon her people. The mining industry has been extensive, the crops have been good, the merchants have enjoyed a fine trade and accumulated wealth and property, and in all everybody with the least spark of energy has something to be thankful for.

Newberry does not want to be at the tail end of the procession when it comes to anything, especially in good roads, and a petition is now being circulated and generally signed requesting that an election be held to decide whether or not a special road tax district be established. The question in that section is popular just now, and when the election is held, judging from reports, it will result in an overwhelming majority for a special district.

The people of Newberry and that district want good roads, they deserve them, and will probably get them through this election.

In this connection we desire to say that it is gratifying to the editor of The Sun to note that the sub tax road district law which he introduced and had passed through the Legislature, is rapidly growing in favor throughout the State, and bids fair to prove the solution of the good roads question.

HOW TO LIVE CHEAPLY.

Substitute comfort for show. Put convenience in the place of fashion. Study simplicity. Refuse to be beguiled into a style of living above what is required by your position in society and is justified by your resources. Set a fashion of simplicity, neatness, prudence and inexpensiveness which others will be glad to follow and thank you for introducing. Teach yourself to do without a thousand and one pretty and showy things which wealthy people purchase, and pride yourself on being just as happy without them as your rich neighbors are with them. Put so much dignity, sincerity, kindness, virtue and love into your simple and inexpensive home that its members will never miss the costly flipperies and showy adornments of fashion, and be happier in the cozy and comfortable apartments than most of our wealthy neighbors are in their splendid apartments.

PROTECT YOUR TOWN.

Protect your own town and thereby show that you are in favor of protection. If protection is good for the nation it is good for the town. As townspeople we should favor our town above every other, as the growth and development of it is what will enhance the value of all property both in and about it. Then buy your dry goods, groceries, hardware, furniture, etc., at home; have your printing, your blacksmithing, your shoe-making done at home; patronize home in every instance that you can. The success of our merchants and mechanics means new business houses and residences, additional demands for labor of various kinds. To the farmer a first-class town affords a better market, a better trading point, and such a town is bound to increase the value of his land. Unquestionably "in union there is strength." Let us protect our town.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured

with local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials free.

TWO KINDS OF CITIZENS.

Patriotism manifests in many and various ways. Some people are willing to die for their country and a few are willing to live for their country—which is much harder. Some are eager to show their patriotism by holding a job at a fat salary. Patriotism, says Walter Williams, is often another name for pride.

The small ways in which patriotism may be shown seldom attract attention. A soldier attacks the enemy of his country, and we call the soldier a patriot. But it is patriotic also to cut down the weeds on your back lot. The soldier gives his life in a day, but the scientist who gives his life in a generation is also patriotic.

Two kinds of citizens are in every town, patriots and traitors. There is no middle ground of neutrality. Every man is in one or the other camp. The patriot does his full duty to the community, votes, expresses his opinion, takes part in meetings for civic good, bears cheerfully his portion of the community's work. The traitor lets the other fellow do the work, and reaps benefit by the other fellow's patriotism. Treason consists of levying war against the republic—so says the foundation law—or giving aid and comfort to her enemies. He gives aid and comfort to the public enemies who does not assist in making better the community in which he dwells. He is himself a public enemy.

The paving of the streets with flint rock is a continuance of the old system of wasting money. Vitrified brick may cost more to begin with, but it will prove a thousand times cheaper in the long run. If the streets are to be paved, let it be done with material that will last.

Most of the kicking against the rich is no more than an effort to quiet a yearning for gold that tugs under every fellow's vest.

Someone said: "Happiness consists in the elimination of your needless wants."

WALT WHITMAN.

Ways of the Poet Who Was Loved by All Who Knew Him.

This is the Walt Whitman who was known and loved by those who met him daily:

"After some conversation Whitman proposed a walk across to Philadelphia. Putting on his gray slouch hat, he sallied forth with evident leisure and, taking my arm as a support, walked slowly the best part of a mile to the ferry. Crossing the ferry was always a great pleasure to him. The life of the street and of the people was so near, so dear. The men on the ferry steamer were evidently old friends, and when we landed on the Philadelphia side we were before long quite besieged—the man or woman selling fish at the corner of the street, the tramway conductor, the loafers on the pavement—a word of recognition from Walt or as often from the other first; presently a cheery shout from the top of a dray, and before we had gone many yards further the driver was down and standing in front of us, his horses given to the care of some bystander. He was an old Broadway 'stager,' had not seen Walt for three or four years, and tears were in his eyes as he held his hand. We were now brought to a standstill, and others gathered round. George was ill, and Walt must go and see him. There was a message for the children, and in his pocket the poet discovered one or two packets for absent little ones. But for the most part his words were few. It was the others who spoke and apparently without reserve."—"Whitman as Carpenter Saw Him" in Craftsman.

Even From the Mountains

Ballard's Snow Liniment is praised for the good it does. A sure cure for rheumatism and all pains. Wright W. Loving, Grand Junction, Colo., writes: "I used Ballard's Snow Liniment last winter for rheumatism, and can recommend it as the best liniment on the market. I thought at the time I was taken down with this trouble that it would be a week before I could get about, but on applying your liniment several times during the night, I was about in 48 hours and well in three days." UNPROFITABLE FEEDING

Intelligent stock raisers know that a certain amount of feed is necessary to keep an animal alive. They might feed that amount as long as it lives, and it would never gain a pound.

There is no profit in that kind of feeding. The kind that pays is the kind that builds flesh rapidly. If it takes twenty pounds of food each day to keep a sheep alive, twenty-five pounds a day will make it gain flesh. It's the extra five that brings the profit. The first five pounds amounts to nothing, nor does the second or third or fourth five pounds.

It's the same way with advertising. You have to do a certain amount to overcome the resistance of the public.

You have to do a certain amount of advertising to make them wake up to the fact that you are in business at all. You have to pay a certain amount to keep your advertising alive. What you pay above that amount brings profit.

Some advertisers fail because they do not use enough space. They use barely enough or sometimes not quite enough to make the advertising self sustaining. A little bit more would make it profitable. It is better to advertise a little too much than not quite enough.—Charles Austin Bates.

...T NATION HOLD COAL LANDS.

...e Roosevelt Uurges in a Message to Congress.

Washington, Feb. 15.—President Roosevelt Wednesday sent to both houses of congress a long message calling attention to what he terms the urgent need of legislation affecting the different phases of the public land still belonging to the government, saying that henceforth the nation should retain its title to its fuel resources, urges government control of the western public land pastures with a system of small grazing fees, etc., and asks for an appropriation of half a million dollars, immediately available, in addition to present estimates to aid in detecting and preventing land frauds. He contends for a system of government leasing of its mineral lands on conditions beneficial to the public and for treating these fuel lands as public utilities, as generally recognized abroad. The president points out that it would have been better if some of the eastern coal lands had been left under government control and suggests the provision in the west, "against recurrence of the conditons we deplored in the east."

Citing 2,300 cases of public land entries in four districts mentioned, the president says non-compliance with the law was found in over half of them, and deliberate fraud in very many cases. The president first refers to his previous message to congress on the subject and again calls attention to the importance of such legislation as would provide for title to and development of the surface land as separate and distinct to the right of the underlying mineral fuels in regions where these may occur, and the disposal of these mineral fuels under a leasing system on conditions which would insure to the benefit of the public as a whole. He says ...cares little for the details, and ...prime need is that the system ...d be established.

BLUEBEARD.

Two Different Stories as to Who Was the Original.

Like many of the other heroes of the nursery tales, Bluebeard once lived in the flesh and blood, if the old chronicler Holinshed, from whom Shakespeare got so much of his material, is to be believed. According to that writer, the original Bluebeard was Giles de Retz or de Raiz, marquis of Laval, who became marshal of France in 1429. He is described as an impious and debauched man, a devotee of the black art, who enticed young men and women to his castle and killed them in order to obtain innocent blood for his magical enchantments and who also murdered six or seven of his wives. His crimes were discovered, and he was burned at the stake in 1440 at Nantes.

According to an old French legend, however, the original Bluebeard lived in Britanny in the sixth century and was known as Count Conomer. After seven of his wives had disappeared he became enamored of Triphyna, the daughter of Count Guereck of Vannes. The wedding was celebrated at Vannes, and Conomer took his bride home.

Before a year had passed Triphyna noticed a change in her husband's manner, and, fearing the same fate that had met her predecessors, she fled from the castle, but was overtaken by Conomer, who struck off her head with a single blow. St. Gildas, by whom the unfortunate wife had been educated, happened to pass the spot soon after, and, seeing the body, he tenderly replaced the head and by prayer restored Triphyna to life. The story does not relate the end of Conomer.

PHYSICAL EXERCISE.

Effect of Boxing on the Mental and Moral Faculties.

Boxing is an exercise which is not only of the most marked benefit in a purely physical way, but it is of the utmost value as a means of training the mental and moral faculties. One of the most unfortunate whimsicalities of our very whimsical day is the prejudice against boxing as a sport and exercise. There is no sport in which there is provided such splendid exercise for body and mind and spirit as in boxing.

The physical influence of boxing is superb. Every muscle and organ is brought into active use. So far as mentality is concerned, the perception, imagination, judgment, discretion, self confidence, aggressiveness and will are all brought into active and rapid use. The boxer who fails in perceiving his opponent's intention, who misses in judging the power or reach of his blow, who is lacking in self confidence, will power or aggressiveness, who fails for one moment to remember all the weak points of the man against whom he is working—that boxer is likely to fall, to lose what we all value—that is, reputation, public confidence and income. Among the many sports and games which are of value in training the mind I place boxing as by all means the most valuable.—W. R. C. Latson, M. D., in Outing Magazine.

An Extraordinary Migration.

One of the greatest mysteries to scientists, one for which there seems to be no reasonable explanation, is that concerning the migration of the lemming, or Norway rat. Instead of taking place once a year, these migrations occur only once in eleven years. When the time comes for the exodus the little animals journey westward from Scandinavia, allowing nothing to stop their movements, which virtually amount to a headlong flight. They swim the lakes and rivers and climb the highest mountains in incalculable numbers, devastating the whole country through which they travel. Naturalists attribute the movement to some inherited memory of a flight to escape an expected cataclysm, but this seems somewhat far fetched.

Neighbors Got Fooled.

"I was literally coughing myself to death, and had become too weak to leave my bed, and neighbors predicted that I would never leave it alone; but they got fooled, for thanks be to God, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It took just four one-dollar bottles to completely cure the cough and restore me to good sound health," writes Mrs. Eva Uncapher of Grovertown, Stark Co., Ind. This King of cough and cold cures, and healer of throat and lungs, is guaranteed at all druggists'. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

A City of Caravans.

The first of November is the official beginning of winter in Paris. Then, no matter what the temperature be, fires are lit in the schools and public buildings, and the janitor turns on the heat for the sad race of flat dwellers. Then all the smaller shows which cannot pay for a "stand" in the streets or squares go into winter quarters. Where? I found a city of them out in the waste lands by the great gate of Montrouge. In an empty lot were scores of caravans drawn up behind the wooden palisades, ranged so as to form veritable streets, named after this showman or that. Dogs, chickens, rabbits, children, swarmed everywhere. Corkscrews of smoke rose from the chimneys of the wagons. Gaudy rags were drying on lines. Will you look in one of the vans? It has two rooms. In one are the beds. The other is for eating. On all sides the walls are lined with closets and drawers. A little stove glows near the door. Here they are born, here they live and die, the enternal dynasties of the voyagers.—Vance Thompson in Outing Magazine.

The Truly Beautiful.

There is, it has been said, no fixed standard of art criticism. What is lauded today is discarded tomorrow, and even connoisseurs disagree bewilderingly; but, glancing back over the ages, it will be found that the discord has been caused by technical divergence and that in every land and among all peoples the truly beautiful has been generally recognized and correctly esteemed. No one questions today the beauty of the Greek temple or the charm of the Babylonian pottery. It does not require trained eyes to recognize the merit of an oriental flower painting or to find delight in one of Whistler's nocturnes. The fundamentals in each instance are the same—rhythmical line, fair proportions and harmonious coloring. We have to be led ofttimes up the ascent of art, and there is much discussion concerning the byways, but once on the height all dissension ends, and we no longer need a guide.—Leila Mechlin in Century.

"It would be," assented her husband, "if you had put a little more oil and vinegar and pepper and mustard seed and horseradish in the dressing and introduced a sliced egg or two and a few white onions and left half of the potatoes out."
